

TYPE OF STAY

International Students at Regis College

As part of the requirements for the International Student Program (ISP), academic institutions are required by the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities to keep information of the type of stay of international students in file. Please complete this form regarding your current type of residence and return it to the Registrar's Office.

While attending Regis College, students are responsible to update your current contact address and phone number in ROSI (www.rosi.utoronto.ca). Regis College may be required to submit attendance and/or proof of advancing in the program for all international students to the federal government. Such notice shall comply with any applicable privacy legislation requirements.
