the University of Toronto Career Exploration & Education has been invited to come to Regis College on Wednesday, February 12, 2020

3 – 4 p.m., Classroom C

Regis College

100 Wellesley Street West

Workshop on:

Career Planning

In this small group session we will discuss the challenges you face in the transition to what's next. You will develop strategies for planning for multiple possible futures, and explore ways to enhance resilience when dealing with career ambiguity. You'll also learn about resources available at Career Exploration & Education.

Registration available on-line. Please register prior to February 10, 2020
