

St. Francis of Assisi as Image of Christ

In Word, Painting, and Music: A Lenten Meditation

Presented by Dr. Christina Labriola, ThD

Wednesdays, February 17 to March 24, 2027 | 11:00 AM to 12:45 PM

In person (St. Joseph Chapel), livestream, & recording

To speak of art in connection with St. Francis of Assisi comes naturally. With his characteristic freshness, creativity, and high idealism coupled with a depth of feeling, his life sings and shines with joyful reverence for the created world, passionate love for God, and compassion for humanity. Francis himself may be considered an artist who sought to make of his life a work of art – but he is also the artwork itself, imprinted by the Living God through his conformity to Christ.

This course provides an opportunity for reflection on the spirituality of St. Francis of Assisi through theologically resonant works of art.

Engaging with portraits of St. Francis in word, visual art, and music, we will imaginatively encounter St. Francis as an icon of Christ, an approach appealing and refreshing to sense and spirit alike.

Dr. Christina Labriola holds graduate degrees in sacred music and in pastoral theology from the University of Toronto. As a musical theologian in the Roman Catholic tradition, her academic work focuses on the intersection of music and the arts with Christian spirituality, theological aesthetics, and liturgy. In addition to her engagement in liturgical music ministry and lecturing, Christina is Director of Music at St. Michael's College Campus Ministry.
